2. CRICKET SWITZERLAND – PRIZE MONEY & AWARD ALLOCATION:

2.1 BASIC PRINCIPLES

2.1.1 To encourage the spirit of competition and reward, Cricket Switzerland recognises that incentives should be provided which ALL competing teams may realistically aspire to attain.

2.1.2 Accordingly, Cricket Switzerland operates a tiered competition structure facilitating (over time) alignment of teams with like capability to strengthen competition, providing opportunity for promotion / demotion as team capabilities change and realign, prizemoney to encourage future development and ongoing participation, plus opportunity to qualify for external competition to test of capability on an international stage.

2.1.3 It is custom & practice that all prizemoney is retained by Cricket Switzerland to be offset against the CSMC membership and / or team fees & contribution fees for the following season. Aggregated prize money awarded to any one CSMC team in any one season shall ultimately not exceed the total value of membership-, team-, and competition fees (1.1.1 - 1.1.3 above) as can be offset against said CSMC team's prize money in the following season. Any surplus prize money thereafter may not be carried forward to any subsequent season.

3. SWISSFOCUS - UMPIRES & SCORERS

3.1 BASIC PRINCIPLES

3.1.1 Cricket Switzerland considers competent umpiring and scorer capability as fundamental to the effective operation of all Cricket Switzerland activities. To this end, Cricket Switzerland offers annually, through its subsidiary organisation swissFOCUS, a variety of training courses to CS & ICC standards – such courses are managed independently through swissFOCUS. Course fees will vary by targeted qualification level, administration costs, tutor costs, and optimum number of participants, etc, and will be advised by swissFOCUS to applicants wishing to attend each respective course.

CRICKET SWITZERLAND

(MEMBER FEES & REIMBURSEMENTS)

3.1.2 Accordingly, it is mandatory for all umpires standing in Cricket Switzerland matches to be qualified to the minimum standard set by swissFOCUS. Registered membership of swissFOCUS for all umpires is preferred, but not mandatory, however, non-registered umpires will not be entitled to receive any benefits that might otherwise accrue to registered umpires (see Article 3.3 hereunder).

3.1.3 Each team (note, team not club) is required to notify swissFOCUS of a minimum of four (4) qualified umpires per season each of which may be called upon to fulfil allocated umpiring duties. Teams failing to comply, will be potentially subject to penalties as set out in Article 4 below.

3.1.4 Only qualified & registered umpires will be entitled to reimbursement and benefits as set out in Article 3.3 hereunder; umpires need make specific application for reimbursement on the swissFOCUS claims form (found on the CS website): similarly, umpires need make specific application for additional awards or benefits via email detailing the benefits requested and inclusive of required size (for clothing) and postal delivery address. Completed forms and email applications should be forwarded to:

clive.denney@cricketswitzerland.ch

3.2 SWISSFOCUS – REGISTRATION & SUPPORT FEES

3.2.1 The swissFOCUS umpire registration contribution shall be:

(i) Individual Registration:	CHF 75.00 per umpire per season
(ii) Team Registration:	CHF 300.00 per minimum of four (4) umpires (mandatory per Article 1.1.2 (iii) above)
(iii) Umpiring Courses:	Fees as may be determined from time to time given consideration of the nature of the course, the number of attendees, cost of delivery, etc.

3.2.2 Where requests for swissFOCUS support are received from CS entities which are not registered to receive swissFOCUS umpire or scorer support, then swissFOCUS will make best efforts to support the request, but without guarantee, for which a fee of CHF 250.00 per day per umpire / scorer will be charged.

3.2.3 Where requests for swissFOCUS support are received from non-CS entities or for a non-CS event, then swissFOCUS will make reasonable efforts to support the request, but without guarantee, and for which a fee of CHF 300.00 per 6 hours, with an additional CHF 50.00 per hour thereafter will be charged per umpire / scorer per day.

3.2.4 In circumstances where a CSMC withdraws its umpires 24 hours or less from the date of an allocated fixture, the CSMC member shall then be required to pay a support fee of

CRICKET SWITZERLAND (MEMBER FEES & REIMBURSEMENTS)

CHF 250.00 to cover costs associated with swissFOCUS sourcing alternate umpire(s); this fee will convert to a CHF 300 penalty for umpire 'no-shows' on the day of the game.

3.2.5 swissFOCUS – Payment Account Details:

All Cricket Switzerland contributions should be made directly to the following account:
