

National Senior Women's Coach (Voluntary Role)

Cricket Switzerland

Cricket Switzerland is seeking an experienced and highly motivated National Women's Coach to lead the continued development of women's cricket at national level. This voluntary role offers an exciting opportunity to shape the future of the women's game in Switzerland within a growing high-performance environment. The appointment is particularly significant because Switzerland has been included in the ICC Women's World Cup pathway for the first time, as part of the qualification cycle for the 2028 tournament.

About the Role

The Chair of the Women's Cricket Committee, assisted by the Committee, shall ensure the management of Cricket Switzerland's women's development cricket programs, including the CS Women's League and national cricket events. He/she shall build knowledge of the game and drive participation and performance levels including in structured competitions.

Key Responsibilities

- Lead the coaching and preparation of the national women's team across training sessions, trials, and competitive fixtures.
- Support player development and performance progression within the national women's pathway.
- Work collaboratively with selectors, Cricket Switzerland officials, and fellow coaches to support programme delivery and squad planning.
- Contribute specialist coaching expertise within the wider coaching environment.
- Attend and support domestic and international tours as required.

Essential Selection Criteria

Qualifications: Candidates should normally hold a minimum Level 3 cricket coaching qualification. A Level 2 qualification may be considered if no suitable Level 3 candidates are available.

Coaching Experience: Candidates must have at least five years of recent coaching experience, including experience working with elite players.

Representative Team Experience: Candidates should have prior experience coaching a representative team.

Communication: Strong communication skills are essential, with the ability to engage effectively with players, teams, Cricket Switzerland officials, and coaching colleagues.

Specialist Coaching Capability: Candidates should have experience working as a specialist coach or leading a defined skill area within a coaching team, such as batting or bowling.

Right to Work: Candidates must have the legal right to live and work in Switzerland.

Travel: Candidates must be willing and able to travel internationally.

Availability: Candidates must be available for most training sessions and selection trials, as well as for domestic and international tours.

Desirable Attributes

Experience within developing cricket environments, a collaborative leadership style, and a commitment to supporting the growth of the women's game will be viewed favourably.

Term of Appointment

Two years.

Application Process

Applicants should submit a covering letter and current résumé by 31 October 2026 to the Director of Women's Cricket, with a copy to the Secretary:

- Director Women's Cricket, Mekala Muniyandi,
